Teacher-to-Parents

Dear Parents,

Hello! This is a short week and this will be a short newsletter. I just wanted to let you know how well the class did last week when I had to be unexpectedly away. All of the substitute teachers said great things about the students and the class. It makes me so happy that they were able to show others the leaders that I know they are. Thank you for any support and encouragement you gave from home. Let me reassure you that I am rarely out, and most of the days I am out are planned. I also want you to know that I am so grateful for Mrs. King and Miss Golden as they helped out and were familiar people each day for the students. Miss Golden was able to get some extra teaching time in before she starts her full time student teaching in January.

Today we had a dance party to celebrate. Our class showed the most kindness in first grade. They voted on a dance party. I hope I'm able to get some video of the first graders dancing. It is a fun thing to see and be a part of.

Just a reminder that we don't have school on Wednesday-Friday this week. Enjoy your Thanksgiving break!

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!
Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. King and Miss Golden

Week-At-A-Glance

Literacy:

We will talk about the story elements with two fiction text: Papa, Please get the Moon for Me and Why the Sun and the Moon Live in the Sky

Math: We will review math concepts that we have learned this quarter.

Social Studies: We will make balloons for a balloon parade as we talk about the tradition of the Macy's Day Parade

Positivity Project/Leadership:

Gratitude

You are aware of and thankful for good things that happen.

Habit 5: Seek First to Understand, Then to be Understood. I listen before I talk.

Happy Birthday to You!

Happy birthday to you! Happy birthday to you! Happy birthday dear...
